International Inner Wheel

Inner Wheel is active in 103 countries with over one hundred thousand members

As a Non Government Organisation,
International Inner Wheel
Representatives work within the United Nations on committees in Geneva, Vienna and New York

The Triennial Convention held in a different part of the world each time gives members the opportunity to meet other like minded women from many different cultures form new friendships and learn more about their countries and the activities they are involved in

Inner Wheel New Zealand

There are 61 Clubs throughout New Zealand and the Pacific Islands with almost 2000 members

A National Conference is held every two years to which all members are encouraged to attend and meet Inner Wheel members from around New Zealand

Each year Clubs support community projects of their choice as well as being involved in national and international projects

Inner Wheel Clubs

Meet monthly, either in the day time or evening to listen to an interesting speaker, arrange social events, service projects and other activities

Inner Wheel encourages you to help others locally, nationally and internationally

Inner Wheel gives you the opportunity to make firm and lasting friendships

Make friends
